

GINGER BRICK, ADULT LITERACY ASSISTANT

Ginger is excited to join the CFLC team as the Adult Literacy Program Assistant!

Ginger studied Speech Communication at Iowa State University, where she concentrated on Training and Development. Since moving to North Carolina in 2003, Ginger has worked with nonprofit programs aimed at helping clients achieve their education and employment goals.

Ginger enjoys reading, combing the beach for shells, and exploring the country with her family.